Keeping MIA Competitive

It is a comprehensive, long-term concept to maximize existing cargo operations and double capacity by demolishing and replacing aged structures as well as developing new cargo facilities in the future.

Pharma:

MIA is the first IATA Designated Pharma Hub Airport in the U.S. and the second in the world, after only Brussels Airport. The designation underscores MIA's leading role as a both safe and efficient global logistics hub for high-value, temperature-sensitive drugs and medicines.

FTZ:

In an effort to expand and diversify its international business base, the Miami-Dade Aviation Department (MDAD) gained final approval from the U.S. Department of Commerce to designate MIA as a Foreign Trade Zone (FTZ) magnet site. This will assist MIA to attract new types of business, increase trade, enhance air service development and diversify the airport's revenue stream.

Ocean-to-Air Perishables Trans-shipment Program:

A first for any Florida airport, MIA can now receive perishable freight cargo by sea. The Ocean-to-Air Perishables Trans-shipment Program saves time and money for cargo shippers by providing expedited air transport of perishable products arriving by sea to international markets via MIA.
